Verse 2:

I think about the scars on Your hands
I think about the thorns that You bore for me
People saying all these things about You
But You were silent as a lamb
Oh, what a beautiful Savior
I think about the scarlet red blood
That was pouring out from every side of You
And how it covers me today
I can sing that You are good

Verse 3:

I think about the price that You've paid
And now I have eternity with You
So how can I keep my mind upon this world
Because I have a million years, a billion years
To dwell in Your Majesty, Your Presence
What a glorious thought
Lord, You are good

Verse 4:

And then I know that You will reign on the earth
Every nation under You
And the Lamb as the light of the world
The brilliance shining out
Every sickness, every pain, all weeping, all mourning
Shall be gone, by the stripes that You have bore
And this is what we'll say, "God, You are good."
